STORY

Little Women is a classic story that follows the lives of the four March sisters—Meg, Jo, Beth, and Amy—growing up in Civil War-era Massachusetts. The Ravold play explores their individual personalities, dreams, and struggles as they navigate the challenges of adolescence into adulthood. The March sisters' bond, their relationships with their family, and their personal growth form the heart of the narrative. Set against the backdrop of the American Civil War and its aftermath, Little Women delves into themes of love, family, sacrifice, and the pursuit of one's ambitions. knows much about the other's world, but eventually come to understand each other, and ultimately, themselves.
